WHAT'S WRONG, GENTLEMEN?

About two months ago the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce appointed their Advance Planning Committee for the purpose of laying plans for the future development of Hancock County. That was, we think, a wise move on the part of the Chamber of Commerce.

The Advance Planning Committee went to work immediately and found out that a number of public projects were needed by the County and by the Community and that the majority of public opinion favored improvements to our water supply system and a sanitary sewer system.

The Chamber of Commerce then appointed an Advisory Committee to work with the City Council toward the realization of the public's number one project. Again we thought this to be a wise move on the part of the Chamber of Commerce.

The Committee met with the City Council on two occasions and expressed their opinions on several important matters. That was weeks ago.

Now, we would like to know what has happened to the project since that time. It is understood that the next step toward this project rests with the City Council. What, then, is wrong? Perhaps the City Council lacks the courage to make the necessary decisions? If that be the case, then why does not the Chamber of Commerce to help the Mayor and Commissioners carry through this project? Or, perhaps the City Council sees that pushing this project through may hurt them in the forthcoming city election. If that be the case then we are definitely in need of an entirely new Commission Council.

JACKSON — Representatives from various organizations of the state will begin a series of presentations of ideas part in the development of plans to the Mississippi Agricultural, Mechanical and Industrial Board, beginning Tuesday, Sept. 23. It was announced by Gov. Hugh White, chairman of the board.

These presentations will be given at each meeting of the board for the next ten months. L. B. Tignatt, president of the Gulf, Mobile and Ohio Railroad, and his associates, will be guests of the board at the September meeting and will discuss the work which the railroad is doing in the promotion of a better economy for Mississippi.

Other representations will be made by the Mississippi Power and Light Co., United Gas, Mississippi Economic Council, Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association, Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co., Mississippi Power Co., Mississippi Valley Gas Co., Illinois Central Railroad, North Mississippi Development Association, Southern Railroad, Mississippi Manufacturer Association and Columbus and Greenville Railroad.

Because the Mississippi Agricultural and Industrial Board is interested in keeping abreast of development programs which these organizations are pursuing, we believe these scheduled meetings will be of mutual help to both the companies and the board. All of these organizations are doing a fine job in helping us develop the state, and it is only through a united program that Mississippi can push ahead," Gov. White said.

SJA Mothers Club Holds First Meeting

St. Joseph Academy Mothers Club held its first meeting of the school year Tuesday, September 9 at 3 p. m. in the Den. There were 42 members present.
Much enthusiasm was manifested by the group over the proposed plan of working for playground equipment and a much needed time recorder. The playground equipment will be installed within the next week or two.
Through the generosity of a kind benefactor part of this equipment was donated and the remainder purchased at the best possible price.
Complete information on the time recorder has not yet been obtained but again through the effort of a kind friend a clock will be procured in the near future.
In speaking to the group, Sister Dorothy said, "If we are to judge from the past we have no difficulty in believing that your plans for securing funds for this material will succeed."
"Incidentally," Sister Dorothy added, "since we have so many interested mothers it may be that something can be done for our library."
An appeal was made to all present to search their own libraries for books which they may find possible to give to the high school library and to the individual class libraries.
Plans for the annual Spaghetti were discussed and a committee named. The date will be announced in the near future.
